

MILDRED LEE ISACKSON

(Tenth President)

MILDRED LEE ISACKSON was born in Rhinelander, Wisconsin, on November 9, 1888. Educated in grammar schools at Duluth, Minnesota. Attended Jennings Seminary at Aurora, Illinois. Graduated from the American Hospital School for Nurses June 1, 1914. Came to the North Dakota State Tuberculosis Sanitarium June 29, 1914, at which institution she has been Superintendent of Nurses for nineteen years. Has taken two summer courses at University of Minnesota. President of the North Dakota State Nurses Association 1932-1933.